

SVP CLE NONPROFIT PARTNERS

WE CURRENTLY PROVIDE COMPREHENSIVE CAPACITY-BUILDING SUPPORT TO THE FOLLOWING ORGANIZATIONS:

Birthing Beautiful Communities

Birthing Beautiful Communities (BBC) works to reduce Black infant mortality in Cleveland. With their collective of Black birth-workers and doulas, BBC provides full support services to people at a highest risk for infant death from the time they are 12 weeks pregnant until their child is one year old.

Courage to Caregivers

Courage to Caregivers provides hope, support, and courage to caregivers and loved ones of those living with mental illness. They're in the caregiver burnout prevention business, supporting caregivers by providing one-to-one caregiver peer support, breathing meditation classes, support groups, and educational resources.

Colors+ Youth Center

Colors+ Youth Center strengthens LGBTQ+ youth and allies by promoting individual and community wellness. The center provides a safe, supportive space for teens and youth to express and explore in a judgment free zone while making connections to other youth.

Literary Cleveland

Literary Cleveland is a nonprofit creative writing center that advances the artistic development of writers and transforms individuals and communities through storytelling.

Urban City Codes

Urban City Codes provides culturally-focused, community-based technology training solutions that empower under-represented, under-resourced, individuals, groups, and companies to develop and stay competitive in a rapidly changing world.

Writers in Residence

Writers in Residence teaches creative writing to youth who are incarcerated to empower their voices and assist in their re-entry into society. Starting as a student-run organization at John Carroll University, they have since expanded their reach to partner with schools and justice systems across the state of Ohio.
